

Website Terms of Use

The FPA of Greater Phoenix (FPAofGP) website is an asset of the association. Its publication and use is intended to further the Vision and Mission of the organization, at all times in accordance with any stated organizational values, and serve its members well.

All website users will abide by any Federal and State laws and regulations, including but not limited to: communication, corporation, commerce, and copyright rules.

Database Disclaimer

The embedded database and associated membership directory is a service of FPAofGP to its members and recognized stakeholders. It exists to provide FPAofGP members and stakeholders with permitted access a means of connecting with each other, in line with the FPA national service line for creating community, and our value of relationships.

It is not intended to be used as a method or source for marketing commercial products or services to fellow FPA members or stakeholders or solely as an avenue for self-promotion and business development.

The use of email links or any contact information within the membership directory to distribute unsolicited commercial email (spam) or volume phone calling is prohibited.

By viewing the embedded database and associated membership directory, you accept these Website terms of use. You also agree to abide by our Privacy Policy.
